a good deal cheaper than you can get at other places for cash.

The other reason is that you can get

Of course "amount of space used"
is not EVERYTHING in advertising.
But, just in the pursuit of wisdom, keep track for a time of the amounts used by the various stores in this newspaper—and see if you could not safely classify the stores accordingly.

A store's advertising is a part of its "public service." It saves the time of the shopper, and promotes thrift and carefulness in buying.

Packed and jammed is the Grand Leader. Their store is a sight and goods are simply thrown away almost. It will pay you to attend this great sale.
They certainly have the stock to do business with.

HASKELL APPROVES

FIFTY OUT OF 61 BILLS LEFT
AFTER ADJOURNMENT.

FIFTEEN-DAY LIMIT EXPIRES

Appropriations, Making in All $327,
$76, Fall to Secure Approval
of Oklahoma's Governor.

Guthrie, Ok., June 11.—Of the sixty-one measures left with Gov. Haskell at the adjournment of the legislature, he has approved all but eleven.

Among those which he signed last night when the fifteen-day limit expired were the anti-trust bill, the bill regulating the practice of medicine, appropriating $42,000 for the district agricultural and mechanical colleges in the eastern part of the state, $200,000 for a new building at the state university, and bills making appropriations for maintenance of the state university, the negro agricultural and mechanical school at Langston, the university preparatory school at Tonkawa, the agricultural and mechanical college and the three state normal schools.

Appropriation bills aggregating $327,376 in addition to those given yesterday were disapproved. In this list was $55,000 for an ice and heating plant at the Fort Supply insane asylum, and $61,500 for summer normal schools in all of the counties of the eastern part of the state. The maintenance bills of the educational institutions were reduced as follows: Three normal schools $54,270, Tonkawa $30,322, State University $33,409, and the negro school at Langston $15,330. The governor also withheld approval of the bills prohibiting the employment of child labor, and authorizing the employment of reporters by the district courts, and they will not become laws.

GOVERNOR SIGNS ANTI-TRUST BILL

Guthrie, Okla., June 10.—(Special.)—Governor Haskell has signed the revised Eggleman-Redwine-Davis anti-trust bill and the Williams medical practice bill, the two bills which have been subjected to the hardest fights of any left in his hands at the adjournment of the legislature. The anti-trust bill has been opposed by commercial organizations generally, but the governor declared that they are misinformed and that the bill does not do what they think it does. The chief opposition to the medical bill came from the chiropractors who failed to receive recognition in the bill as finally passed.

School for Deaf at Sulphur.

Guthrie, Ok., June 11.—The Board of control for the state school for the deaf will go to Sulphur next week with a view to temporarily locate the institution there. The legislature appropriated $30,000 with latitude for the board in making arrangements for the next school year.

Oklahoma Territory's deaf mutes were kept in this city under contract with a private institution, and this arrangement, it has been announced, will not be continued. There were 109 pupils enrolled this year, and there are in the entire state, the board estimates, 200 of scholastic age. It is believed that Sulphur can secure at least the temporary location of the school, if its proposition is attractive. Muskogee is also said to be a prospective applicant.

The board has been unable to secure a superintendent for the institution. The position pays $1,400 per annum.

K. C. FLOOD

Kansas City, Mo., June 10.—The flood has reached the highest point since 1903. The flood stage of 1904 was reached and passed last night. The Kaw is now falling. The damage in Kansas City, Kansas, is heavy. Topeka is almost cut off from the outside world.

WEWOKA BAR ENDORSES CHIEF JUSTICE WILLIAMS

Guthrie, Ok., June 11.—If it be true that the liberty of a people depends on the probity of their courts, then personal liberty in Oklahoma seems to be well safe-guarded. Especially is this true of the supreme court of the state, than whom a more highly esteemed tribunal has not been established in America. This fact is attested by the numerous resolutions of bar associations throughout the state endorsing the court, and particularly Chief Justice Williams. The following resolutions adopted by the bar association of Wewoka, and supported and subscribed to by the republican attorneys as enthusiastically as the democrats is a fair sample:

Whereas, the term of the office of the chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Oklahoma will soon expire and the democrats of this supreme judicial district will soon be called upon to nominate a candidate for his successor, and it will be the duty of the people of the state to elect his successor, and

Whereas, the present chief justice, has filled the office with distinguished ability and has shown himself to be a jurist of whom the bar of the great state of Oklahoma may well be proud, and,

Whereas, We the members of the Seminole county bar, recognize that in the infancy of the jurisprudence of our state, the people can not afford to have any other than able, impartial and broad-minded man as well as a learned lawyer on the supreme court of our state.

We, therefore, without regard to party, take this method of endorsing the record of Judge Williams, as chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Oklahoma and extend to him our sincere well wishes for his re-election to the high and honorable position that he has so well and ably filled during his brief incumbency of said office.

"Trial marriages," and "trial separations" may never be sanctioned—but "trial homes are already the rule with boarders and lodgers. And without the privilege of occasional change fewer people would choose this method of living.

ROTTEN LEGISLATION.

We have called attention to many instances of rotten lawmaking in many of the Western states. On this page today will be found another horrible example of the way things have been done or attempted to be done in Oklahoma. Not all the bills that were passed last winter in Oklahoma became laws, because some bills were too bad even for the governor. But as a rule anything that any man proposed went through, provided it had the characteristics of violence, bloodshed and robbery. Is it any wonder that money for expansion and improvement in Oklahoma is now and for some time will be the highest priced money used in any state? When republican sanity succeeds populist anarchy, the new state will experience a radical change for the better.—Kansas City Journal.

No one who is acquainted with the Journal is surprised at the above dope. Now just suppose Oklahoma was turned over to the Journal. Abolishing the corporation commission and repealing the two cent fare would in our opinion be its first official acts. On the same page and in the same issue that the above mess appeared nearly a column defense of the railroads, against the two cent fare law. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Two more county seat fights were brought into the supreme court on an injunction suit. Lehigh brings suit against Coalgate, which was declared the winner in Coal county and Pond Creek contests Medford, the county seat of Grant county. In both cases the result of elections means the moving of the county seat, and this the old county seats seek to restrain. Both cases were set for hearing June 15, which is also the date set for hearing the Eufala-Checotah contest from McIntosh county.

Announcement is made by Auditor Trapp that the state board of equalization will meet on Saturday morning to give a final hearing to railroad and public service corporations. Railroad representatives are expected to be here in large numbers to protest against the big raise in railroad valuations made by the board.

Guthrie, Okla., June 11.—The various posses which have been searching for Alf Hunter, the negro slayer of Sheriff Garrison of Oklahoma City, now admit that they have lost his trail completely. The man surrounded by United States Marshal Abernathy and his deputies near Lovell last night was brought in this morning and was found not to be the man wanted. There is strong reason to believe Hunter may be hiding in Guthrie.

MAY GO TO FEDERAL COURTS.

Judge Campbell Denies Injunction
Asked by Liquor Salesman.

McAlester, Ok., June 11.—Judge Ralph E. Campbell of the United States court refused today to grant an injunction restraining the officers of the state of Oklahoma from further arresting A. H. Dreyfus, a citizen of Kansas City, Mo., from soliciting orders for interstate shipment of liquor into the state of Oklahoma. In refusing the injunction Judge Campbell quoted at length from the opinion of Justice Harlan in Pitts vs. McGhee, 172 U. S. 517, and added: "The court is without jurisdiction to enjoin the defendants as officers of the state from proceeding to enforce by criminal proceedings the laws of the state, even though they may be repugnant to the constitution of the United States. This is a defense of which the complaint may avail himself in the courts of the state, and if unsuccessful there, may, on writ of error, take his case to the supreme court of the United States for final decision."

CONTEMPORARY COMMENT

Rip Van Winkle.

Rip Van Winkle returned from his long sleep looking fresh as a daisy and made his way to the village barber shop, not only because he needed a hair cut and shave, but also because he wished to catch up on the news.

"Let's see," said he to the barber after he was safely tucked in the chair. "I've been asleep twenty years, haven't I?"

"Yep," replied the tonsorialist.

"Have I missed much?"

"Nope, we bin standin' pat."

"Has congress done anything yet?"

"Not a thing."

"Jerome done anything?"

"Nope."

"Platt resigned?"

"Nope."

"Panama canal built?"

"Nope."

"Bryan been elected?"

"Nope."

"Carnegie poor?"

"Nope."

"Well, say," said Rip, rising up in the chair, "never mind shaving the other side of my face. I'm going back to sleep again."

If it's a want ad. task, and a want ad. falls to accomplish it, after a fair test—then it would seem that further pursuit of the matter were useless.

The store ads. today contain good cheer for the shopper—man or woman—who is a little "late" about getting those "summer things."

In County Court.

In the matter of the estate of Emma Harris, deceased.

To the heirs, next of kin, and creditors of Emma Harris, deceased.

You are hereby notified that J. C. Chapman has applied to the county court of Pontotoc county, State of Oklahoma, for letters of administration on the estate of Emma Harris, deceased, to be granted to J. C. Chapman and that said application will be heard at the court room of said court in the city of Ada, in said County, on the 23rd day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time and place any person interested may appear and show cause if any they have why such petition should not be granted. Witness my hand and the seal of the said court hereunto affixed this 11th day of June 1908.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's for One Thing Only.
Nothing can be good for everything
Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They cure sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ail.

Here is evidence to prove it.

Mrs. C. Floyd, wife of C. Floyd, car inspector for the M. K. & T. railroad, and living on East Houston street, Muskogee, I. T., says: "Both my husband and myself have used Doan's Kidney Pills with most satisfactory results. For a long time I was troubled with attacks of kidney complaint and inflammation of the bladder which greatly disturbed my rest nights on account of the too frequent action of the secretions, and which was accompanied with pain. I used numerous remedies but obtained only relief for the time being. A lady friend of mine told me of Doan's Kidney Pills and so strongly urged me to try them that I got a box. I was not disappointed in the results obtained. They went direct to the root of the disease and I felt better after the first few doses, and when I had taken them a short time the pain in my back disappeared and the action of the kidney secretions was rendered normal and natural."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath, and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Concert Tonight

So, for today the weather is favorable for the Band Concert tonight and we predict for them, more people than were ever in the Airdome at one time. It has been a long time since the Ada people have had an opportunity of witnessing an entertainment of any kind, the severe weather being to blame, but tonight they have an opportunity, not only of being highly entertained but of helping a worthy cause. Do the people of Ada realize they have one of the best bands in the Southwest part of the state? If not, come out tonight and be convinced.

Goudy-Parker

Guthrie, Okla., June 11.—The marriage of Miss Frances Goudy of Ada and Howard Parker, also of Ada, was celebrated at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon. The bride formerly resided in Paris, Texas, and has been filling a position in the School Land Department here since statehood. Mr. Parker is a native of Mt. Vernon, Texas and a graduate of the Texas University. During the Legislature he was enrolling clerk in the house of representatives.

The above announcement will be interesting to the people of Ada, as both the bride and groom are well known in the city and each number their friends by the hundred.

The bride is a brilliant young woman, industrious and progressive and possesses many qualities which bespeak highest praise and which warrants the statement that our old friend Howard did exceedingly well.

Too much that is good and praiseworthy cannot be said of the groom. He is without doubt one of Oklahoma's brightest scholars and a standing reward of one million dollars will be paid to him who has caught against this man. Everybody who knows Parker is his friend and they all of them offer hearty congratulations, and an honest wish for a long and rosy path.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Cynthia Parker of Mt. Vernon, Texas, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Smith, are expected in the city every day whereupon they will be joined by the bride and groom for a few days' visit with friends.

HAPPILY MARRIED

Mr. William T. George and Miss Mamie B. Norton of San Angelo,

Texas Wedded June 10th

William T. George from our neighboring little city, Francis, stole himself away and to San Angelo went, where he was happily married to Miss Mamie B. Norton of that city. We might call Tucker an Ada boy, for he once lived here and numbers his friends by the score. Business interests called him to Francis where he is now in the mercantile line and enjoying the fruits of his labors.

Miss Norton was one of the accomplished young ladies of San Angelo, Texas, Mr. George having met her some months ago while both were awaiting on delayed trains in Shreveport, La.

Mr. and Mrs. George are in Ada spending their honeymoon and receiving the congratulations of Mr. George's many friends. They will go to Francis Sunday. The News wishes both much happiness and a long and prosperous life. The following clipping from the Daily Item published at San Angelo, Mrs. George's former home:

A marriage this morning at eleven o'clock, is the sequel to a romance which started at Shreveport, La., just a little more than a year ago. It was in the Union Station in the Louisiana town. Trains were delayed on account of washouts. Miss Mamie B. Norton of this city and William T. George now of Francis, Oklahoma, were among the marooned passengers. They met in that depot for the first time. They not alone, however, Cupid was marooned in that depot too, and with unerring aim he fired a dart that pierced the hearts of two.

Mr. George arrived in San Angelo yesterday and this morning claimed as his bride, one of Concho's most amiable daughters. The wedding occurred at 11 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Fitzgerald, 337 Beuregard street, in the presence of the family. Rev. A. B. Perry, Rector of Emanuel Episcopal church officiating.

Miss Norton has been employed for a number of years in a confidential position in the W. E. Newton Furniture and Undertaking Co. Mr. and Mrs. George will leave on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to Francis, Oklahoma, where the groom is a successful business man. The Daily Item, with a host of friends of the contracting parties, wishes them a full measure of happiness.

The Oklahoma Portland Cement Co. never do anything by halves. Today they donated to the city of Ada, 100 barrels of their cement, the best in the world, to be used in repairing the damaged dam, and work of filling up the hole will begin immediately. Mr. Bowman, of the Light Plant, also has a big heart. He donated the lights that a night shift might be used in the repair work.

A Hot Footer

Anybody that knows Harv Wells, the engineer on the switcher, knows how he moves when he starts out with a train. Well, this morning he started and Henry Koveth failing to get a number of a car much wanted, lit out after him. Harv. had quite the start but the way Henry hot footed it down the track and outran that engine and car was a caution. He returned to the depot. Ice water was poured on his head and in 5 minutes he was challenging the whole Frisco crew for a 5-mile run.

Geo. Cox and family of Stonewall who have been in the city for several days, returned today.

Lost or Stolen

Yesterday afternoon some one either by mistake or with evil intent took from the buggy of Mrs. W. W. Sledge in front of the Grand Leader, a package containing a brown silk drop skirt. The skirt had just been purchased from the Cox, Greer, McDonald Co. and was wrapped in a newspaper. Party finding same please return to the Cox, Greer McDonald Co. and receive reward.

The subject of the sermon at the morning hour will be "God, the source of all supply." There will be a special service of prayer, and members of the church are all earnestly requested to be present. Come praying for a gracious blessing in the services of the Sabbath. Everybody is invited to attend.

ESCAUED PRISONER CAPTURED

John Barr the Texas Man Killer Again Taken by Chief Culver

John Barr, alias W.M. Shaw, wanted in Texas for assault to kill and who escaped from the Pontotoc county jail Wednesday night, a full account of which appeared in yesterday's News, was recaptured by Chief Police Culver and Constable Frank Hall in the Chimney Hills near the quarry late yesterday afternoon. After breaking jail here Barr went straight to the quarry where he arrived about day light, and then went out into the hills to remain concealed until night when he expected to join his female partner and light out for taller timber, but Chief Geo. Culver was too smooth for him, and as he heard of his escape he called Constable Frank Hall and the two went straight to the quarry, having learned their man had been there and on arriving there, found he had gone to the hills. Getting the assistance of 3 men from the quarry they started in pursuit and thrashed out every inch of the brush afoot until they came suddenly on their man, who gave up without resistance. He claims to have laid down to sleep and lost his gun but this is supposed to have been a ruse, it is the opinion of the officers that the woman that is figuring so prominently in the case, would have given him a gun had she known of his whereabouts. This morning Chief Culver received a telephone message from the quarry stating that this woman and some men were on the passenger train and would try and release Barr on their arrival in Ada. This put the officers on their guard and all the deputy sheriffs and Sheriff Smith are closely guarding the jail.

This prisoner is a peculiar genius. Last night he was locked to the floor with a ball and chain but this morning he released himself. He can take off a pair of handcuffs as easy as an officer can put them on. He has proven this.

The officers have been looking for a man from Texas to come and get Barr, but he has not shown up yet. In the meantime Sheriff Smith is taking every precaution to prevent his escape.

BAND CONCERT.

Tomorrow night June 12th, at the Airdome the Ada Concert Band will give to the people of Ada a concert that will long be remembered by its citizens. Why not go out to hear it. The band has been practicing for some time and will no doubt acquit themselves in a creditable manner, besides a glance at the program will convince the most skeptical that the other parts will be of much interest and the entertainment first-class in every respect. The admission will be 25c. Come out and help the band pay for their new uniforms.

Below is the program:

The Vanishing Fleets

By ROY NORTON

the machine leaped away into the broad drive toward the nearest park entrance. And to the amazement of the onlookers the men in uniform stood at salute until the machine had disappeared. Not even then did they disperse, but stood there silently watching the skies. Pedestrians joined the group, speculating as to the cause of this unformed gathering.

Several minutes elapsed, and then from one and another came startled exclamations. Up from the silent park, soaring above the trees and shrubbery with stately sweep, came a strange row of brilliant lights. The secret was out at last, and the American officers gave a frantic cheer, which was joined in by the Englishmen, and taken up by the crowd. As if to recognize their parting shouts, the searchlights of the Roberts in dashing ripples of color flared suddenly upward and round in fan-shaped sweeps, which were finally directed full upon the streets below. At a comparatively low altitude the craft went slowly across the city and headed toward the Atlantic, while men upon the pavements beneath took up the cry, until from all sides windows opened and the people rushed into the streets for a sight of this mysterious aerial visitor. Reaching the lower edge of the city, the radiplane shot up and up until it was a speck of light against the stars, took one last circling flight, and with marvelous speed disappeared in the east. And while America was gaining her first knowledge of this incredible flying machine, the Roberts was shooting away in a long straight track for the old world.

The king had watched the sights below as long as they were visible. Through his glasses he had seen the streets become filled with excited men, women and children, and their shoutings had come to him faintly above the hum of the dynamos. The glimmerings of the great harbor dimmed and died away, and here and there could be described the lights of the slow steaming patrol ships keeping the outpost watch upon the sea. When the last sign of life had vanished, he turned to his companions in silence, thinking of all that had taken place within the few recent hours.

Only a short time ago they had entered this aerial chamber, standing in dread of the unknown terror of the waters and the menacing silence of this western continent they were leaving behind. Only a few hours past they had trembled at the powerlessness of their nation and shudderingly awaited the shock of invasion.

Now they were going back to England bearing news that would upset old ideas, remove all fear for the future, and ally her with the most powerful nation history had ever known. They had sailed away furtively with darkened ports, and were now returning in a glare of white light, careless of who might observe. Events had followed each other in such remarkable sequence, with such astounding rapidity, that it wearied the mind to follow them. The king was pondering over the new situation when with no preliminary notice every light in the radiplane went out and they were left in darkness.

From without and through the open door came the voices of the admiral and engineer in conversation: "It can't be an enemy." "Hardly; but we dare take no chances."

"What do you think it is?" "I don't know. A minute or two will tell if they have seen us."

The king and his countrymen fumbled for their glasses in the darkness, found them, and lined themselves up against the transparent port which had not been closed. The cause of the sudden cautionary measures was apparent. There, comparatively far away, and high up against the starlit sky, they saw the blazing line of a searchlight thrust up into the darkness. It wavered uncertainly for an instant, and then slowly, as if feeling its way, approached them. It seemed uncertain and for a moment disappeared. Their own machine had come to a halt. For an instant nothing was visible, and then there leaped into the air a another steady ray of brilliant white, and then to complete the color trio a vivid shaft of blue arrayed itself beside the other two. Outside in the hood they heard a wild unrestrained burst of cheering, and the cabin was again flooded with light. The old admiral stepped hurriedly in, his face aglow, and his cap in his hand.

"The Soldierly Form of the Kaiser Appeared."

"We have sighted the Norma, your majesty, the craft which disappeared with his imperial majesty, the emperor of Germany."

Before he had finished speaking the signal calling hearers to the wireless telephone buzzed insistently, and he turned to answer. From the dome above they could see answering lights playing rapidly from their own craft. They heard Bevins talking to some one excitedly; and peering once more through the side ports saw they were rushing onward to meet this other traveler of the spaces. With decreasing speed the two approached each other, retaining their altitude high above and beyond sound of the sea. Now they were floating abreast, and finally, after a moment's tensely, they came to a stop. Their metal sides came together with an almost imperceptible jar, and they adjusted themselves for further communication.

Simultaneously their great ports slid open, and the king, who had gone to the companionway, saw the interior of the other radiplane. Bevins and Brockton in delight were shaking hands and congratulating each other. They talked for a moment, and then the rear admiral retired from view. Bevins turned to the king and said: "Your majesty, the emperor of Germany wishes to come aboard."

Before the king could give his assent the soldierly form of the Kaiser appeared outlined in the light of his own port, took a cautious step across

MASKED MEN KILL RAILWAY WATCHMAN

Four Highwaymen Hold up Frisco Employe Three Miles North of Muskogee

Muskogee, Okla., June 11.—David Conway, watchman at the Frisco bridge, three miles north of here, was shot and killed tonight by four masked men who ran out of the Muskogee yards on a handcar. The men then robbed him and made their escape. A posse is now in pursuit.

At 11 o'clock tonight officers with bloodhounds left here on a switch engine to run to earth the slayers of David Conway.

A hat of one of the men was found. It is believed the men intended to rob a bank at Fort Gibson and killed Conway because he refused to allow them to cross the toll bridge without paying.

The City of Ada

A host invites all the balance of Pontotoc to be her guests on the 4th of July. The occasion will be a big basket picnic and barbecue and appropriate celebration in commemoration of the birth of this great republic.

Ada is proud to be the county seat of such a fine county as Pontotoc and feels duly regardful of those outlying districts and cities in the county which have reflected so creditably and profitably on her in such material and substantial manner.

Ada wants to warm with the balance of the county.

Come to Ada on the 4th and be her guest for the day and if you are not entertained properly it will be an "error of the head and not the heart."

There will be on hand brass bands and statemen, great fireworks display, and every character of legitimate amusement. The people of the county will get acquainted on that day, and enjoy, all together, the biggest public dinner ever served in the Chicksaw country.

Home Mission Items

On account of floods, but few of the delegates could get to the Annual meeting which waas to have been held in Durant May 26th-28th, so they did not have any meeting and will not have any this year. Therefore, I will give to our readers all that can be put in figures of what the H. M. S. did in the Oklahoma Conference last year.

There are 131 Auxiliaries, 2,185 members, Subscribers to "Our Homes," 531, Tithers, 131, Visits made to sick and strangers, 11,933. Cottage prayer meetings, 437, garments given away, 5,217, needy assisted, 873, Auxiliaries observing week of prayer, 31.

Dues paid, $2,613.04; Specials, $630.39; Amount expended on parsonages, $4,479.90; Furnishing churches, $4,939.84; Supplies given locally, $2,076.65; for relief of needy, $810.87; Other specials, $369.40.

The Ada Auxiliary keeps up more departments than any other single Auxiliary, but there are two things we lack yet. We hold no cottage prayer meetings and have no Young People's societies.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure it with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. ## HASKELL APPROVES

AFTER ADJOURNMENT.

FIFTEEN-DAY LIMIT EXPIRES

Appropriations, Making in All $327,
$74, Fall to Secure Approval
of Oklahoma's Governor.

Guthrie, Ok June 11—Of the sixty-one measures left with Gov Haskell at the adjournment of the legislature, he has approved all but eleven.

Among those which he signed last night when the fifteen-day limit expired were the anti-trust bill the bill regulating the practice of medicine appropriating $42,000 for the district agricultural and mechanical colleges in the eastern part of the state, $200,000 for a new building at the state university and bills making appropriations for maintenance of the state university the negro agricultural and mechanical school at Langston the university preparatory school at Tonkawa the agricultural and mechanical college and the three state normal schools.

Appropriation bills aggregating $327,376 in addition to those given yesterday were disapproved in this list was $50,000 for an ice and heat plant at the Fort Supply insane asylum and $61,000 for summer normal schools in all of the counties of the eastern part of the state. The maintenance bills of the educational institutions were reduced as follows: Three normal schools $34,270 Tonkawa $30,320 State University $33,409 and the negro school at Langston $15,330. The governor also withheld approval of the bills prohibiting the employment of child labor and authorizing the employment of reporters by the district courts and they will not become laws.

GOVERNOR SIGNS ANTI-TRUST BILL

Guthrie, Ok June 11—(Special)—Gov. Haskell has signed the revised anti-trust bill which has been passed by the legislature. The bill is the most comprehensive anti-trust bill yet passed in Oklahoma. It covers all forms of business combinations and prohibits the formation of trusts, pools, combinations or contracts in restraint of trade. The bill also prohibits the use of undue influence or coercion in the acquisition of stock or property. The governor's signing of the bill is a landmark event in the history of Oklahoma's legislation.

School for Deaf at Sulphur.

Guthrie, Ok June 11—The Board of control for the state school for the deaf will go to Sulphur next week with a view to temporarily locating the institution there. The legislature appropriated $31,000 with latitude for the board in making arrangements for the next school year.

Oklahoma Territory's deaf mutes were kept in this city under contract with a private institution and this arrangement it has been announced will not be continued. There were 103 pupils enrolled this year and there are in the entire state the board estimates 200 of scholastic age. It is believed that Sulphur can secure at least the temporary location of the school if its proposition is attractive. Muskogee is also said to be a prospective applicant. The board has been unable to secure a superintendent for the institution. The institution pays $1,400 per annum.

K. C. FLOOD

Kansas City, Mo June 10—The flood has reached the highest point since 1907. The flood stage of 1907 was reached and passed last night. The river is now falling. The damage in Kansas City, Kansas is heavy. Topeka is almost cut off from the outside world.

WEWOKA BAR ENDORSES

CHIEF JUSTICE WILLIAMS

Guthrie, Ok June 11—If it be true that the liberty of a people depends on the probity of their courts then personal liberty in Oklahoma seems to be well safe-guarded. Especially is this true of the supreme court of the state than whom a more highly esteemed tribunal has not been established in America. This fact is attested by the numerous resolutions of bar associations throughout the state endorsing the court, and particularly Chief Justice Williams. The following resolutions adopted by the bar association of Wewoka, and supported and subscribed to by the republican attorneys as enthusiastically as the democrats is a fair sample. Whereas the term of the office of the chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Oklahoma will soon expire and the democrats of this supreme judicial district will soon be called upon to nominate a candidate for his successor and it will be the duty of the people of the state to elect his successor and

Whereas the present chief justice has filled the office with distinguished ability and has shown himself to be a jurist of whom the bar of the great state of Oklahoma may well be proud and

Whereas we the members of the Seginole county bar recognize that in the infancy of the jurisprudence of our state the people can not afford to have any other than an able impartial and broad minded man as well as a learned law on the supreme court of our state

We therefore without regard to party take this method of endorsing the record of Judge William as chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Oklahoma and extend to him our sincere well wishes for his re election to the high and honorable position that he has so well and ably filled during his brief incumbency of said office

Goudy-Parker
Guthrie Okla, June 11—The marriage of Miss Frances Goudy of Ada and Howard Parker also of Ada, was celebrated at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon The bride formerly resided in Paris Texas, and has been filling a position in the School Land Department here since statehood Mr Parker is a native of Mt Vernon Texas and a graduate of the Texas University During the Legislature he was enrolling clerk in the house of representatives

The above announcement will be interesting to the people of Ada as both the bride and groom are well known in the city and each number their friends by the hundred

The bride is a brilliant young woman industrious and progressive and possesses many qualities which bespeak highest praise and which warrants the statement that our old friend Howard did exceedingly well

Too much that is good and praiseworthy cannot be said of the groom He is without doubt one of Oklahoma's brightest scholars and a standing reward of one million dollars will be paid to him who has caught against this man Everybody who knows Parker is his friend and they all of them offer hearty congratulations, and an honest wish for a long and rosy path

The groom's mother, Mrs Cynthia Parker of Mt Vernon, Texas, accompanied by her mother, Mrs Smith are expected in the city every day whereupon they will be joined by the bride and groom for a few days' visit with friends

HAPPILY MARRIED
Mr. William T. George and Miss Mamie B. Norton of San Angelo,

Texas Wedded June 10th
William T George from our neighboring little city, Francis, stole himself away and to San Angelo went, where he was happily married to Miss Mamie B Norton of that city We might call Tucker an Ada boy, for he once lived here and numbers his friends by the score Business interests called him to Francis where he is now in the mercantile line and enjoying the fruits of his labors

Miss Norton was one of the accomplished young ladies of San Angelo, Texas, Mr George having met her some months ago while both were awaiting on delayed trains in Shreveport La.

Mr and Mrs George are in Ada spending their honeymoon and receiving the congratulations of Mr George's many friends They will go to Francis Sunday The News wishes both much happiness and a long and prosperous life The following clipping from the Daily Item published at San Angelo Mrs George's former home

A marriage this morning at eleven o'clock, is the sequel to a romance which started at Shreveport, La, just a little more than a year ago It was in the Union Station in the Louisiana town Trains were delayed on account of washouts Miss Mamie B Norton of this city and William T George now of Francis Oklahoma, were among the marooned passengers They met in that depot for the first time They not alone however Cupid was marooned in that depot too and with unerring aim he fired a dart that pierced the hearts of two Mr George arrived in San Angelo yesterday and this morning claimed as his bride one of Concho's most amiable daughters The wedding occurred at 11 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother Mrs Elizabeth S Fitzgerald 337 Beuregard street in the presence of the family Rev A B Perry Rector of Emanuel Episcopal church officiating

Miss Norton has been employed for a number of years in a confidential position in the W E Newton Furniture and Undertaking Co Mr and Mrs George will leave on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to Francis, Oklahoma where the groom is a successful business man The Daily Item with a host of friends of the contracting parties wishes them a full measure of happiness

ESCAPED PRISONER CAPTURED

John Barr the Texas Man Killer Again Taken by Chief Culver

John Barr alias W. M. Shaw wanted in Texas for assault to kill and who escaped from the Pontotoc county jail Wednesday night a full account of which appeared in yesterday's News, was recaptured by Chief Police Culver and Constable Frank Hall in the Chimney Hills near the quarry late yesterday afternoon. After breaking jail here Barr went straight to the quarry where he arrived about day light, and then went out into the hills to remain concealed until night when he expected to join his female partner and light out for taller timber, but Chief Geo. Culver was too smooth for him, and as he heard of his escape he called Constable Frank Hall and the two went straight to the quarry, having learned their man had been there and on arriving there, found he had gone to the hills. Getting the assistance of 3 men from the quarry they started in pursuit and thrashed out every inch of the brush about until they came suddenly on their man, who gave up without resistance. He claims to have laid down to sleep and lost his gun but this is supposed to have been a ruse. It is the opinion of the officers that the woman that is figuring so prominently in the case would have given him a gun had she known of his whereabouts. This morning Chief Culver received a telephone message from the quarry stating that this woman and some men were on the passenger train and would try and release Barr on their arrival in Ada. This put the officers on their guard and all the deputy sheriffs and Sheriff Smith are closely guarding the jail.

This prisoner is a peculiar genius. Last night he was locked to the floor with a ball and chain but this morning he released himself. He can take off a pair of handcuffs as easy as an officer can put them on. He has proven this.

The officers have been looking for a man from Texas to come and get Barr but he has not shown up yet. In the meantime Sheriff Smith is taking every precaution to prevent his escape.

BAND CONCERT.

Tomorrow night June 12th at 8 o'clock the Ada Concert Band will give to the people of Ada a concert that will long be remembered by its citizens. We are not going to hear it. The band has been practicing for some time and will no doubt acquit themselves in a creditable manner. Besides a large program will convince the most skeptical that the band is well up to the mark. The program will be of much interest and the entertainment first class. We expect the admission will be a good one. We help the band to their new uniforms.

- Below is the program:
1. March—Dixie (B. J. Hall)
  2. Waltzes—Golden Sunset (John J. Hall)
  3. Duett—Tillie Cicole (B. J. Hall)
  4. Violin Solo—Selected (Mrs. Spill)
  5. Piano solo—Op. 13 (Isadore Rosenfield)
  6. March—Our Director (F. S. Bigelow)
  7. Waltz—Life's Golden Hours (B. J. Hall)
  8. Overture—Yankee Doodle (H. C. Miller)
  9. Quartet—Selected Messrs. Walters, Wymore, Hardin, Guest
  10. Reading—Patrick Croughlin (a) The Irish Lochnever (b) H. Gorrie
  11. Two Step—Southern Smiles (E. H. Kelly)
  12. Reverie—Romance of a Rose (L. B. O'Connor)
  13. Schottische—De Darkies Hop (Miller)

The Vanishing Fleets

By ROY NORTON

the machine leaped away into the broad drive toward the nearest park entrance. And to the amazement of the onlookers the men in uniform stood at salute until the machine had disappeared. Not even then did they disperse, but stood there silently watching the skies. Pedestrians joined the group, speculating as to the cause of this uniformed gathering.

Several minutes elapsed, and then from one and another came startled exclamations. Up from the silent park, soaring above the trees and shrubbery with stately sweep, came a strange row of brilliant lights. The secret was out at last, and the American officers gave a frantic cheer, which was joined in by the Englishmen, and taken up by the crowd. As if to recognize their parting shouts, the searchlights of the Roberts in dazzling ripples of color flared suddenly upward and round in fan-shaped sweeps, which were finally directed full upon the streets below. At a comparatively low altitude the craft went slowly across the city and headed toward the Atlantic, while men upon the pavements beneath took up the cry, until from all sides windows opened and the people rushed into the streets for a sight of this mysterious aerial visitor. Reaching the lower edge of the city, the radiplane shot up and up until it was a speck of light against the stars, and with marvelous speed disappeared in the east. And while America was gaining her first knowledge of this incredible flying machine, the Roberts was shooting away in a long straight track for the old world.

The king had watched the nights below as long as they were visible. Through his glasses he had seen the streets become filled with excited men, women and children and their shoutings had come to him faintly above the hum of the dynamo. The glimmerings of the great harbor flamed and died away, and here and there could be descried the lights of the slow steaming patrol ships keeping the outpost watch upon the sea. When the last sign of life had vanished he turned to his companions in silence, thinking of all that had taken place within the few recent hours.

Only a short time ago they had entered this aerial chamber standing in dread of an unknown terror of the waters and the menacing space of this western continent they were leaving behind. Only a few hours past they had trembled at the mercilessness of their nation and shudderingly awaited the shock of invasion.

Now they were going back to England, bearing news that would upset old ideas, remove all fear of the future and ally her with the most powerful nation history has known. They had sailed away from home with a light of victory, and a return in a light of defeat. They had followed each other in such fearful sequence with such astounding rapidity that they were finding it hard to follow them. The king was pondering over the new situation when with no preliminary notice every light in the radiplane went out and they were left in darkness.

From without and through the open door came the voices of the admiral and engineer in conversation.

"It can't be an enemy."

"Hailly, but we dare take no chances."

"What do you think it is?"

"I don't know. A minute or two will tell if they have seen us."

The king and his countrymen fumbled for their glasses in the darkness, found them and lined them selves up against the transparent port which had not been closed. The cause of the sudden cautionary measures was apparent. There came a dimly far away and high up against the starlit sky they saw the blazing line of a searchlight thrust up into the darkness. It wavered uncertainly for an instant and then slowly as if feeling its way approached them. It seemed uncertain and for a moment disappeared. Their own machine had come to a halt. For an instant nothing was visible and then there heaped into the air a another steady ray of brilliant white, and then to complete the color trio a vivid shaft of blue arrayed itself beside the other two. Outside in the hood they heard a wild unrestrained burst of cheering and the cabin was again flooded with light. The old admiral stepped hurriedly in, his face aglow and his cap in his hand.

"We have sighted the Norma, your majesty the craft which disappeared with his imperial majesty the emperor of Germany."

Before he had finished speaking the signal calling hearers to the wireless telephone buzzed insistently and he turned to answer. From the dome above they could see answering lights playing rapidly from their own craft. They heard Bevin talking to some one excitedly and peering once more through the side ports saw they were rushing onward to meet this other traveler of the spaces. With decreasing speed the two approached each other, retaining their altitude high above and beyond sound of the sea. Now they were floating abreast, and finally, after a moment's tensity, they came to a stop. Their metal sides came together with an almost imperceptible jar, and they adjusted themselves for further communication.

Simultaneously their great ports slid open, and the king, who had gone to the companionway, saw the interior of the other radiplane. Bevin and Brockton in delight were shaking hands and congratulating each other. They talked for a moment, and then the rear admiral retired from view. Bevin turned to the king and said: "Your majesty, the emperor of Germany wishes to come aboard."

Before the king could give his assent the soldierly form of the kaiser appeared outlined in the light of his own port, took a cautious step across

MASKED MEN KILL RAILWAY WATCHMAN

Four Highwaymen Hold up Frisco Employee Three Miles North of Muskogee

Muskogee Okla. June 11—David Conway watchman at the Frisco bridge three miles north of here was shot and killed tonight by four masked men who ran out of the Muskogee yards on a handcar. The men then robbed him and made their escape. A posse is now in pursuit.

At 11 o'clock tonight officers with bloodhounds left here on a switch engine to run to earth the slayers of David Conway.

A hat of one of the men was found. It is believed the men intended to rob a bank at Fort Gibson and killed Conway because he refused to allow them to cross the toll bridge without paying.

The City of Ada

Ada host invites all the balance of Pontotoc to be her guests on the 4th of July. The occasion will be a big basket picnic and barbecue and appropriate celebration in commemoration of the birth of this great republic.

Ada is proud to be the county seat of such a fine county as Pontotoc and feels duly regal of those outlying districts and cities in the county which have reflected so creditably and profitably on her in such material and substantial manner.

Ada wants to warm with the balance of the county.

Come to Ada on the 4th and be her guest for the day and if you are not entertained properly it will be an error of the head and not the heart."

There will be on hand brass bands and statesmen, great fireworks display, and every character of legitimate amusement. The people of the county will get acquainted on that day, and enjoy, all together, the biggest public dinner ever served in the Chicksaw country.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure it with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO. ## HASKELL APPROVES

AFTER ADJOURNMENT.

FIFTEEN-DAY LIMIT EXPIRES

Appropriations, Making in All $327,
976, Fail to Secure Approval
of Oklahoma's Governor.

Guthrie, Ok June 11.—Of the sixty-one measures left with Gov Haskell at the adjournment of the legislature, he has approved all but eleven.

Among those which he signed last night when the fifteen-day limit expired were the anti-trust bill the bill regulating the practice of medicine appropriating $42,000 for the district agricultural and mechanical colleges in the eastern part of the state, $200,000 for a new building at the state university and bills making appropriations for maintenance of the state university the negro agricultural and mechanical school at Langston the university preparatory school at Tonkawa the agricultural and mechanical college and the three state normal schools.

Appropriation bills aggregating $327,976 in addition to those given yesterday were disapproved. In this list was $20,000 for an ice and heating plant at the Fort Supply insane asylum and $61,000 for summer normal schools in all of the counties of the eastern part of the state. The maintenance bills of the educational institutions were reduced as follows: Three normal schools $34,270 Tonkawa $30,326 State University $33,409 and the negro school at Langston $1,330. The governor also withheld approval of the bills prohibiting the employment of child labor and authorizing the employment of reporters by the district courts and they will not become laws.

GOVERNOR SIGNS ANTI-TRUST BILL

Guthrie, Ok June 11.—(Special)—Gov Haskell has signed the revised F. Allen Redwine Davis anti-trust bill and the Williams medical practice bill the latter of which have been called the hardest parts of his list. His hands at the adjournment of the legislature. The anti-trust bill has been opposed by commercial organizations generally but the governor declared that they are uninformed and that the bill does not do what they think it does. The chief opposition to the medical bill came from the chiropractic who failed to receive recognition in the bill as finally passed.

School for Deaf at Sulphur.
Guthrie, Ok June 11.—The Board of control for the state school for the deaf will go to Sulphur next week with a view to temporarily locate the institution there. The legislature appropriated $30,000 with latitude for the board in making arrangements for the next school year.

Oklahoma Territory's deaf mutes were kept in this city under contract with a private institution and this arrangement it has been announced will not be continued. There were 109 pupils enrolled this year and there are in the entire state the board estimates 200 of scholastic age. It is believed that Sulphur can secure at least the temporary location of the school if its proposition is attractive. Muskogee is also said to be a prospective applicant. The board has been unable to secure a superintendent for the institution. The institution pays $1,400 per annum.

K. C. FLOOD

Kansas City, Mo June 10.—The flood has reached the highest point since 1907. The flood stage of 1907 was reached and passed last night. The river is now falling. The damage in Kansas City Kansas is heavy. Topeka is almost cut off from the outside world.

WEWOKA BAR ENDORSES

CHIEF JUSTICE WILLIAMS

Guthrie, Ok June 11.—If it be true that the liberty of a people depends on the probity of their courts then personal liberty in Oklahoma seems to be well safe-guarded. Especially is this true of the supreme court of the state than whom a more highly esteemed tribunal has not been established in America. This fact is attested by the numerous resolutions of bar associations throughout the state endorsing the court, and particularly Chief Justice Williams. The following resolutions adopted by the bar association of Wewoka, and supported and subscribed to by the republican attorneys as enthusiastically as the democrats is a fair sample.

Whereas the term of the office of the chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Oklahoma will soon expire and the democrats of this supreme judicial district will soon be called upon to nominate a candidate for his successor and it will be the duty of the people of the state to elect his successor and

Whereas the present chief justice has filled the office with distinguished ability and has shown himself to be a jurist of whom the bar of the great state of Oklahoma may well be proud and

Whereas we the members of the Seminole county bar recognize that in the infancy of the jurisprudence of our state the people can not afford to have any other than an able impartial and broad minded man as well as a learned lawyer on the supreme court of our state

We therefore without regard to party take this method of endorsing the record of Judge Williams as chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Oklahoma and extend to him our sincere well wishes for his reelection to the high and honorable position that he has so well and ably filled during his brief tenure of said office

trial marriages and trial separations may never be sanctioned—but trial homes are already the rule with boarders and lodgers. And with out the privilege of occasional change fewer people would choose this method of living.

ROTTEN LEGISLATION.

We have called attention to many instances of rotten lawmaking in many of the Western states. On this page today will be found another horrible example of the way things have been done or attempted to be done in Oklahoma. Not all the bills that were passed last winter in Oklahoma became laws, because some bills were too bad even for the governor. But as a rule anything that any man proposed went through, provided it had the characteristics of violence, bloodshed and robbery. Is it any wonder that money for expansion and improvement in Oklahoma is now and for some time will be the highest priced money used in any state? When republican sanity succeeds populistic anarchy, the new state will experience a radical change for the better—Kansas City Journal.

No one who is acquainted with the Journal is surprised at the above. Now just suppose Oklahoma was turned over to the Journal Abolishing the corporation commission and repealing the two cent fare would in our opinion be its first official act. On the same page and in the same issue that the above mess appeared nearly a column defense of

Two more county seat fights were brought into the supreme court on an injunction suit. Lehigh brings suit against Coalgate, which was declared the winner in Coal county and Pond Creek contests Medford, the county seat of Grant county. In both cases the result of elections means the moving of the county seat, and this the old county seats seek to restrain. Both cases were set for hearing June 15, which is also the date set for hearing the Eufala-Chicotah contest from McIntosh county.

Announcement is made by Auditor Trapp that the state board of equalization will meet on Saturday morning to give a final hearing to railroads and public service corporations. Railroad representatives are expected to be here in large numbers to protest against the big raise in railroad valuations made by the board.

Guthrie, Okla., June 11—The various posses which have been searching for Alf Hunter, the negro slayer of Sheriff Garrison of Oklahoma City, now admit that they have lost his trail completely. The man surrounded by United States Marshal Abernathy and his deputies near Lovell last night was brought in this morning and was found not to be the man wanted. There is strong reason to believe Hunter may be hiding in Guthrie.

MAY GO TO FEDERAL COURTS.

Judge Campbell Denies Injunction
Asked by Liquor Salesman.

McAlester, Ok., June 11—Judge Ralph E. Campbell of the United States court refused today to grant an injunction restraining the officers of the state of Oklahoma from further arresting A. H. Dreyfus, a citizen of Kansas City, Mo., from soliciting orders for interstate shipment of liquor into the state of Oklahoma. In refusing the injunction Judge Campbell bell quoted at length from the opinion of Justice Harlan in Fitts vs McGhee, 172 U. S. 517, and added: "The court is without jurisdiction to enjoin the defendants as officers of the state from proceeding to enforce by criminal proceedings the laws of the state even though they may be repugnant to the constitution of the United States. This is a defense of which the complaint may avail himself in the courts of the state, and if unsuccessful there, may, on writ of error, take his case to the supreme court of the United States for final decision."

CONTEMPORARY COMMENT

Rip Van Winkle.

Rip Van Winkle returned from his long sleep looking fresh as a daisy and made his way to the village barber shop, not only because he needed a hair cut and shave, but also because he wished to catch up on the news.

"Let's see," said he to the barber after he was safely tucked in the chair. "I've been asleep twenty years, haven't I?"

"Yep," replied the tonsorialist.

"Have I missed much?"

"Nope, we bin standin' pat."

"Has congress done anything yet?"

"Not a thing."

"Jerome done anything?"

"Nope."

"Panama canal built?"

"Nope."

"Bryan been elected?"

"Nope."

"Carnegie poor?"

"Nope."

"Well, say," said Rip, rising up in the chair, "never mind shaving the other side of my face I'm going back to sleep again."

If it's a want ad task, and a want ad fails to accomplish it, after a fair test—then it would seem that further pursuit of the matter were useless.

The store ads today contain good cheer for the shopper—man or woman—who is a little "late" about getting those "summer things."

STATE OF OKLAHOMA.

PONTOTOC COUNTY.

In County Court.

In the matter of the estate of Emma Harris, deceased.

To the heirs, next of kin, and creditors of Emma Harris, deceased:

You are hereby notified that J. C. Chapman has applied to the county court of Pontotoc county, State of Oklahoma, for letters of administration on the estate of Emma Harris, deceased, to be granted to J. C. Chapman and that said application will be heard at the court room of said county in the city of Ada, in said county, on the 23rd day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time and place any person interested may appear and show cause if any they have why such petition should not be granted.

Witness my hand and the seal of the said court hereunto affixed this 11th day of June 1908.

(Seal) JOEL TERRELL,

County Judge.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's for One Thing Only. Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They cure sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is evidence to prove it.

Mrs. C. Floyd, wife of C. Floyd, car inspector for the M., K. & T. railroad, and living on East Houston street, Muskogee, I. T., says: "Both my husband and myself have used Doan's Kidney Pills with most satisfactory results. For a long time I was troubled with attacks of kidney complaint and inflammation of the bladder which greatly disturbed my rest nights on account of the too frequent action of the secretions, and which was accompanied with pain. I used numerous remedies but obtained only relief for the time being. A lady friend of mine told me of Doan's Kidney Pills and so strongly urged me to try them that I got a box. I was not disappointed in the results obtained. They went direct to the root of the disease and I felt better after the first few doses, and when I had taken them a short time the pain in my back disappeared and the action of the kidney secretions was rendered normal and natural."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and yellow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Gandy-Parker
Guthrie Okla, June 11—The marriage of Miss Frances Goudy of Ada and Howard Parker also of Ada, was celebrated at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon The bride formerly resided in Paris Texas, and has been filling a position in the School Land Department here since statehood Mr Parker is a native of Mt Vernon Texas and a graduate of the Texas University During the Legislature he was enrolling clerk in the house of representatives

The above announcement will be interesting to the people of Ada as both the bride and groom are well known in the city and each number their friends by the hundred

The bride is a brilliant young woman industrious and progressive and possesses many qualities which bespeak highest praise and which warrants the statement that our old friend Howard did exceedingly well

Too much that is good and praiseworthy cannot be said of the groom He is without doubt one of Oklahoma's brightest scholars and a standing reward of one million dollars will be paid to him who has caught against this man Everybody who knows Parker is his friend and they all of them offer hearty congratulations, and an honest wish for a long and rosy path

The groom's mother, Mrs Cynthia Parker of Mt Vernon, Texas, accompanied by her mother, Mrs Smith are expected in the city every day whereupon they will be joined by the bride and groom for a few days' visit with friends

We might call Tucker an Ada boy, for he once lived here and numbers his friends by the score Business interests called him to Francis where he is now in the mercantile line and enjoying the fruits of his labors

Miss Norton was one of the accomplished young ladies of San Angelo, Texas, Mr George having met her some months ago while both were awaiting on delayed trains in Shreveport La

Mr and Mrs George are in Ada spending their honeymoon and receiving the congratulations of Mr Georges many friends They will go to Francis Sunday The News wishes both much happiness and a long and prosperous life The following clipping from the Daily Item published at San Angelo Mrs George's former home

A marriage this morning at eleven o'clock, is the sequel to a romance which started at Shreveport, La, just a little more than a year ago It was in the Union Station in the Louisiana town Trains were delayed on account of washouts Miss Mamie B Norton of this city and William T George now of Francis Oklahoma, were among the marooned passengers They met in that depot for the first time They not alone however Cupid was marooned in that depot too and with unerring aim he fired a dart that pierced the hearts of two

Mr George arrived in San Angelo yesterday and this morning claimed as his bride one of Concho's most amiable daughters The wedding occurred at 11 o'clock at the residence of the brides mother Mrs Elizabeth S Fitzgerald 337 Beuregard street in the presence of the family Rev A B Perry Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church officiating

Miss Norton has been employed for a number of years in a confidential position in the W E Newton Furniture and Undertaking Co Mr and Mrs George will leave on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to Francis, Oklahoma where the groom is a successful business man The Daily Item with a host of friends of the contracting parties wishes them a full measure of happiness

ESCAPED PRISONER CAPTURED

John Barr the Texas Man Killer Again Taken by Chief Culver

John Barr alias W M Shaw wanted in Texas for assault to kill and who escaped from the Pontotoc county jail Wednesday night a full account of which appeared in yesterday's News, was recaptured by Chief Police Culver and Constable Frank Hall in the Chimney Hills near the quarry late yesterday afternoon. After breaking jail here Barr went straight to the quarry where he arrived about day light, and then went out into the hills to remain concealed until night when he expected to join his female partner and light out for taller timber, but Chief Geo Culver was too smooth for him, and as he heard of his escape he called Constable Frank Hall and the two went straight to the quarry, having learned their man had been there and on arriving there, found he had gone to the hills. Getting the assistance of 3 men from the quarry they started in pursuit and thrashed out every inch of the brush about until they came suddenly on their man, who gave up without resistance. He claims to have laid down to sleep and lost his gun but this is supposed to have been a ruse. It is the opinion of the officers that the woman that is figuring so prominently in the case would have given him a gun had she known of his whereabouts. This morning Chief Culver received a telephone message from the quarry stating that this woman and some men were on the passenger train and would try and release Barr on their arrival in Ada. This put the officers on their guard and all the deputy sheriffs and Sheriff Smith are closely guarding the jail.

This prisoner is a peculiar genius. Last night he was locked to the floor with a ball and chain but this morning he released himself. He can take off a pair of handcuffs as easy as an officer can put them on. He has proven this.

The officers have been on long for a man from Texas to come and get Barr but he has not shown up yet. In the meantime Sheriff Smith is taking every precaution to prevent his escape.

The Vanishing Fleets

By ROY NORION

the machine leaped away into the broad drive toward the nearest park entrance. And to the amazement of the onlookers the men in uniform stood at salute until the machine disappeared. Not even then did they disperse, but stood there silently watching the skies. Pedestrians joined the group, speculating as to the cause of this uniformed gathering.

Several minutes elapsed, and then from one and another came startled exclamations. Up from the silent park, soaring above the trees and shrubbery with stately sweep, came a strange row of brilliant lights. The secret was out at last, and the American officers gave a frantic cheer, which was joined in by the Englishmen, and taken up by the crowd. As if to recognize their parting shouts, the searchlights of the Roberts in dazzling ripples of color flared suddenly upward and round in fan-shaped sweeps, which were finally directed full upon the streets below. At a comparatively low altitude the craft went slowly across the city and headed toward the Atlantic, while men upon the pavements beneath took up the cry, until from all sides windows opened and the people rushed into the streets for a sight of this mysterious aerial visitor. Reaching the lower edge of the city, the radiance shot up and up until it was a speck of light against the stars, took one last circling flight, and with marvelous speed disappeared in the east. And while America was gaining her first knowledge of this incredible flying machine, the Roberts was shooting away in a long straight track for the old world.

The king had watched the sights below as long as they were visible. Through his glasses he had seen the streets become filled with excited men, women and children and their shoutings had come to him faintly above the hum of the dynamo. The glimmerings of the great harbor dimmed and died away, and here and there could be described the lights of the slow steaming patrol ships keeping the outpost watch upon the sea. When the last sign of life had vanished he turned to his companions in silence, thinking of all that had taken place within the few recent hours.

Only a short time ago they had entered this aerial chamber standing in dread of an unknown terror of the waters and the menacing space of this western continent they were leaving behind. Only a few hours past they had trembled at the powerlessness of their nation and shudderingly awaited the shock of invasion.

Now they were going back to England bearing news that would upset old ideas, remove all fear of the future and ally her with the most powerful nation history has known. They had sailed away with a return in a light of white articles of who might observe it. It had followed each other in such terrifying rapidity that it seemed the mind to follow them. The limit was pondering over the new situation when with no preliminary notice every light in the radiance went out and they were left in darkness.

Light without and through the open door came the voices of the admiral and engineers in conversation.

It can't be an enemy.

Hailly but we dare take no chances.

"What do you think it is?"

The king and his countrymen fumbled for their glasses in the darkness, found them and lined themselves up against the transparent port which had not been closed. The cause of the sudden cautionary measures was apparent. There comparatively far away and high up against the starlit sky they saw the blazing line of a searchlight thrust up into the darkness. It wavered uncertainly for an instant and then slowly as if feeling its way approached them. It seemed uncertain and for a moment disappeared. Their own machine had come to a halt.

For an instant nothing was visible and then there leaped into the air a another steady ray of brilliant white, and then to complete the color trio a vivid shaft of blue arrayed itself beside the other two. Outside in the hood they heard a wild unrestrained burst of cheering and the cabin was again flooded with light. The old admiral stepped hurriedly in, his face aglow and his cap in his hand.

"We have sighted the Norma, your majesty the craft which disappeared with his imperial majesty the emperor of Germany."

Before he had finished speaking the signal calling hearers to the wireless telephone buzzed insistently and he turned to answer. From the dome above they could see answering lights playing rapidly from their own craft. They heard Bevin talking to some one excitedly and peering once more through the side ports saw they were rushing onward to meet this other traveler of the spaces. With decreasing speed the two approached each other, retaining their altitude high above and beyond sound of the sea. Now they were floating abreast, and finally, after a moment's tenacity, they came to a stop. Their metal sides came together with an almost imperceptible jar, and they adjusted themselves for further communication.

Simultaneously their great ports slid open, and the king, who had gone to the companionway, saw the interior of the other radioplane. Bevin and Brockton in delight were shaking hands and congratulating each other. They talked for a moment, and then the rear admiral retired from view. Bevin turned to the king and said: "Your majesty, the emperor of Germany wishes to come aboard."

Before the king could give his assent the soldierly form of the kaiser appeared outlined in the light of his own port, took a cautious step across

MASKED MEN KILL RAILWAY WATCHMAN

Four Highwaymen Hold up Frisco Employee Three Miles North of Muskogee

Muskogee Okla. June 11—David Conway watchman at the Frisco bridge three miles north of here was shot and killed tonight by four masked men who ran out of the Muskogee yards on a handcar. The men then robbed him and made their escape. A posse is now in pursuit.

At 11 o'clock tonight officers with bloodhounds left here on a switch engine to run to earth the slayers of David Conway.

A hat of one of the men was found. It is believed the men intended to rob a bank at Fort Gibson and killed Conway because he refused to allow them to cross the toll bridge without paying.

The City of Ada

Ada host invites all the balance of Pontotoc to be her guests on the 4th of July. The occasion will be a big basket picnic and barbecue and appropriate celebration in commemoration of the birth of this great republic.

Ada is proud to be the county seat of such a fine county as Pontotoc and feels duly respectful of those outlying districts and cities in the county which have reflected so creditably and profitably on her in such material and substantial manner.

Ada wants to warm with the balance of the county.

Come to Ada on the 4th and be her guest for the day and if you are not entertained properly it will be an error of the head and not the heart."

There will be on hand brass bands and statesmen, great fireworks display, and every character of legitimate amusement. The people of the county will get acquainted on that day, and enjoy, all together, the biggest public dinner ever served in the Chicksaw country.

Home Mission Items

On account of floods, few of the delegates could get to the Annual meeting which was to have been held in Durant May 26th-28th, so they did not have any meeting and will not have any this year. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure it with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo Ohio.
